Adista obtains the Best Managed Companies label

Paris la Défense, 6 July 2022

The hosted services operator Adista has emerged as the French specialist in cloud and telecom services offered to companies and local authorities on superfast networks and is among the French companies rewarded by the 2022 edition of the Best Managed Companies programme initiated by Deloitte France.

Launched in France in 2021, the Best Managed Companies programme is an initiative that was inaugurated 30 years ago by Deloitte Canada and is now present in more than 45 countries. This label recognises the excellence of companies that are outstanding for the quality of their management and for their performance, at the end of a rigorous and independent selection process. The companies are assessed on the basis of 4 pillars: strategy, capacity for execution and innovation, culture and commitment towards employees, as well as the governance and financial management structure.

“Adista stands out due to its strong culture of excellence, I am delighted to count it among the companies that have received the Best Managed Companies label,” revealed Eric Forest, Deloitte Associate in charge of the Best Managed Companies programme.

Through its business, Adista provides companies and public authorities with the components for a next generation IT system that is essential to their performance and to reach their objectives.

“Obtaining the Best Managed Companies label is a source of pride, not just personally, but collectively. This label rewards the excellence that is demonstrated by all the company teams on a daily basis for our clients”, said Patrice Bélie, CEO of Adista. “In a context of technological mutation, it is our responsibility to guide our clients, all over France, in order to operate and secure their information systems. Our mission consists of simplifying access to cloud and telecoms technology to liberate the working potential of their staff. This recognition strengthens our position as a trusted operator” continued Patrice Bélie.

With this label that is valid for one year, Adista becomes part of a unique network of more than 1200 companies that hold the Best Managed Companies label at national and international level.

About Adista

A Hosted Services operator, Adista is positioned as the number one alternative B2B cloud and telecoms operator in France and the specialist in IT and voice services. By associating the brands Adista, Waycom and unyc, Adista's strength lies in its capacity to address the direct and indirect sales markets to offer companies its expertise in cloud and hosting services, as a telecommunications operator and digital transformation and cybersecurity adviser. End to end control over the quality of services, a hybrid vision of information systems and the capacity to deliver IT, telecoms and cybersecurity services all over France are the keys to the company’s success. With the acquisitions of Fingerprint in 2020 and Waycom and unyc in 2021, Adista realised sales of more than 220 million € in 2021 and is aiming for 500 million € for 2026. With 900 employees spread over 35 agencies, Adista is leading an ambitious recruitment project to accompany its growth. www.adista.fr
